DAVID EVIDENTLY FORGET FIRST WIFE

HE IS REPORTED TO HAVE RE-MARRIED AFTER STARTING TO HAVE A DIVORCE SET ASIDE.

If his attorney wins a motion to set aside default and judgment, David Lindsay will be up against it, strictly. He may even be a bigamist. If the statements made by Judge Lyle A. Dickey in Judge Lindsay's court this morning are correct.

On December 12 last, Judge De Bolt granted a decree of divorce to Maria Nicole Lindsay from David. It was a default judgment. Subsequently Judge Gear moved that the judgment be set aside. That motion was up before Judge Lindsay this morning for argument. Neither Gear nor David were in court so the matter was moved along. Dickey who represented the libellant, stated that David had married on December 31 so it would hardly seem as if the former libellee were desirous of having the decree set aside.

Two divorce cases are on this afternoon before Judge Lindsay. One is where Annie Ascencio wants to get rid of Pascal A. Ascencio, on the ground that he has failed to support her.

The other is where Wong Gum Tung asks to be free from the bonds of matrimony that link her to Lee San Chin. She charges Lee with having been very cruel to her, he kicked her in the stomach and otherwise abused her on several occasions. Furthermore he pulled her hair and dragged her about the room. He also was shy in providing.

MOANA DELAYED BY BAD WEATHER

CARRIES BIG THROUGH PASSENGER LIST AND SAILS NORTH AT 3 O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON.

The Canadian-Australian S. S. Moana Captain Gibb, arrived from the Colonies at 9 o'clock this morning. She was detained half an hour at the Bishop wharf before her passengers were allowed ashore to permit the quarantine officers to examine her large list of passengers. She carries 127 passengers for Vancouver and Victoria. But one passenger came for Honolulu, W. H. Berkeley.

Twenty-four hours late in getting away from Suva and therefore due to arrive here yesterday morning, the Moana was delayed another day by the rough weather encountered. She left Sydney the day before Christmas and reached Brisbane in the afternoon of the day after Christmas. Suva was reached on New Year's day and left on January 2. Strong southerly winds accompanied by heavy rains were experienced from Sydney to Brisbane, thence strong to moderate easterly winds with rough seas to Suva, thence fresh to strong winds from the east with head seas and fine weather overhead to arrival at Fanning Island, followed by moderate easterly winds, a smooth sea and fine weather to arrival at Honolulu. The Moana brought for Honolulu 100 packages of tea, 200 cases of onions, 15 cases of preserves, a case of toys, 3 cases of cotton goods, one box of shells and one case of books and sundries. She sails for Vancouver and Victoria at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

CORONADO SAILS AGAIN FOR COAST

NEW MASTER AND MATE FOR BARKENTINE WHICH PUT BACK YESTERDAY FROM SEA.

With a new captain and a new mate the barkentine Coronado again started on the voyage to San Francisco this forenoon, shortly after 11 o'clock. Her new master is Captain Charles Lunn, once master of the City of Papeete. Her first officer is T. J. Leonard, formerly of the Abby Palmer. These officers take the places of Captain Potter and Mate Chris Pederson, the former too ill to go out with his vessel and the latter having sustained fracture of both legs on January 5, having been caught by the guy of the main boom. The Coronado left here in the forenoon of Sunday, December 23, for San Francisco. When the mate's legs were broken the ship was put about and headed for Honolulu, arriving yesterday afternoon and docking at the Oceanic wharf.
